

Licensed to practice law in the State of California, SBN 255464

The Law Offices of Selena E. Devine, PC focuses primarily on bankruptcy law and family law serving clients in Ventura, Santa Barbara, and Los Angeles Counties.

Bankruptcy Law

It is difficult to escape the impact of today's economy. Changes in credit industry, housing industry and job market have touched everyone. Medical bills can dramatically change one's financial picture. The odds are someone you know has already filed for bankruptcy or is seriously considering it. Bankruptcy does not carry the stigma that it once did. It is a tool to help those who have become immobilized by debt to stop losing sleep and move forward with their lives once again.

Family Law

Whether it is a divorce, legal separation, or custody dispute, family matters can be clouded by emotion. We can look at your case with a skilled, yet compassionate, eye to answer your questions and de-mystify the process.

When Bankruptcy Law and Family Law Intersect

Bankruptcy and divorce often go hand-in-hand. Both are often emotional and unsettling life changes. However, both can provide a fresh start. We understand the challenges of these legal processes when coupled with stress and change. We provide confidential, compassionate, and experienced legal services to help you move toward your fresh start. Our knowledgeable and experienced legal team can assess your situation and help you navigate the difficult and detailed path of bankruptcy or family law matters.

Where bankruptcy law and family law intersect, it takes a legal team with the experience in both arenas to protect your interests. Give us a call today to schedule a confidential 30-minute free consultation.